COURSE PREREQUISITES

This course is designed for learners who have completed A1 English or demonstrate equivalent knowledge. Students are expected to write simple sentences and short texts about familiar topics, such as family, daily routines, and hobbies. They should be able to use basic connectors (and, but, because) to join ideas and write short, guided paragraphs. The course builds on these skills to help learners progress towards A2 level writing competency.

COURSE GOALS AND CONTENT

The aim of this course is to develop learners' writing skills to the A2 level, using Longman Writing 2. The course emphasizes producing short, connected texts with improved accuracy, vocabulary, and organization. The content focuses on writing topic sentences, developing and supporting ideas in paragraphs, using simple past and present tenses in narratives, and expressing preferences and opinions in writing. Students will also learn to organize information logically in descriptive, narrative, and opinion-based paragraphs. By the end of the course, learners will be able to write short but structured paragraphs on a range of familiar topics, expressing opinions, experiences, and plans with greater clarity.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Write short and connected paragraphs with topic sentences and supporting details.
2. Use simple past and present tenses consistently in descriptive and narrative writing.
3. Express opinions and preferences in short texts, giving simple reasons.
4. Organize information logically with basic cohesive devices.
5. Develop short and guided compositions, linking ideas into clear paragraphs.
6. Apply spelling, punctuation, and capitalization rules with growing accuracy.

SPECIFIC COURSE OBJECTIVES

By the end of each unit, students will be able to:

1. Write clear topic sentences for short paragraphs, organize supporting sentences logically, and use basic linking words to show sequence and connection.
2. Practice: Students will review and consolidate the previous week's input through practice and revision activities.
3. Write descriptive paragraphs about familiar topics such as people, places, or daily routines, using adjectives, and present simple structures effectively.
4. Practice: Students will review and consolidate the previous week's input through practice and revision activities.
5. Write narrative paragraphs about past events and personal experiences, using past simple tense accurately and sequencing words (first, then, after that, finally).
6. Practice: Students will review and consolidate the previous week's input through practice and revision activities.
7. Write opinion paragraphs, express likes, dislikes, and preferences, and support opinions with simple reasons using connectors like because and so.
8. Practice: Students will review and consolidate the previous week's input through practice and revision activities.
